What is Going On Tonight

Windham Encampment, No. 10, I. O. O. F., meets at 807 Main St. American Benefit Society, Willimantic Lodge, No. 120 meets at 782 Main St.

The police have been notified by the authorities of the Mansfield state hospital and training school to apprehend, if possible, Leon Russell, who escaped from the institution early Monday evening. Russell had been at the institution but a short time, having been taken there March 13th.

In addition to those previously mentioned, Colby Kennerston, who died suddenly Monday evening, is survived by a son, Clarence W. Kennerston, of Cliftondale, Mass., and a brother, John Kennerston, of Willimantic.

Edward O'Connor, 19, and John Baker, 17, both of Philadelphia, were arrested at the railroad station Tuesday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. Early Monday night in New London the men stole an automobile which was left standing outside the Lyceum theatre in that city by its owner, Walter Hoshod, of Mystic, while he was attending the show. O'Connor and Baker had been in New London for the past week, endeavoring to obtain work at the Groton Iron works. After stealing the car, which was a Ford touring, they started out with it, with no particular objective point in view, but finally wound up in the vicinity of Westchester, where they made an effort to sell the car to a man of that town for the small sum of $25. The man got suspicious and did not buy the machine, whereupon the men took the car and drove it to a cross country road and left it. Chief Killourey of Willimantic heard of the matter and arrested the men. They were taken to the Willimantic police station and locked up for the night. It is expected the New London authorities will come and get them this (Wednesday) morning and take them back to that city for trial. Chief Killourey after arresting the men went after the stolen car, succeeded in locating it and it was brought to this city and placed in a local garage to await the arrival of its owner. If the young men stole the car for the sake of the money which they might obtain for it, they certainly chose the wrong place to sell their prize.

Mrs. Jane C. Brown Pantan, 83, died in Windham Tuesday at the home of her niece, Mrs. W. P. Maine, after an illness of several weeks. She was the daughter of the late Asher P. and Louisa Ames Brown and was born in Lisbon. She was educated in the public schools and a young ladies' seminary in Norwich Town. Later she became a popular and successful teacher. In 1874 she married Lawrence C. Pantan of Colorado Springs and went abroad. After their return they spent ten years in the Napa valley, Cal., and later came to Connecticut to reside. Since the death of Mr. Pantan and the breaking up of the home in Jewett City, Mrs. Pantan had lived with relatives in Windham. She was a member of the Congregational church and had been prominent in missionary and temperance work. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. W. B. Brown, of Atlanta, Ga., and several nephews and nieces.

Telegrams from soldiers returned from overseas to relatives in Willimantic and vicinity were numerous, and the embarkment of the 102nd Infantry at Boston Monday was the chief topic of interest in this city Tuesday. A number of Willimantic citizens will go to Camp Devens, for which place the company entrained Tuesday morning, to see some of the local soldiers rather than wait until they are discharged, and return to this city. According to the list published Tuesday morning of Connecticut officers and men, who were aboard the transport Agamemnon, there were sixteen of the original members of Company L, who are Willimantic boys: Privates Arthur J. Bellevance, James S. Donahue, Victor Hamel, James J. Casey, Thomas J. Muskers, Arthur F. Clark, William C. Mann, Sergeant E. J. Lapan, Ernest Butler, William L. McKiernan, Frank Warrender, William R. Clark, W. F. Nather, William F. Sullivan, Private Elmer Howlett and Ralph Elmore. There are a number of the original company of men from this section not mentioned and it is assumed that they are either in France at present or on their way home. James S. Donahue of this city was among the number who went from here to Boston in time to meet the transport as it came into the harbor and was well rewarded for his journey as he had the opportunity of seeing his son, James, and found him looking well.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Willimantic Trust company was held Tuesday morning at nine o'clock. The report of the treasurer was read and most gratifying condition of the financial status of the institution was shown. The past year's business resulted in a large increase in its resources. Following this report, the election of directors took place as follows: Clifford J. Alpaugh, E. Frank Bugbee, Charles W. Alpaugh, Fred D. Jordan, William H. Hall, Henry A. Bugbee, John E. Brick, Charles Fenton, George S. Elliott, Leslie F. Hartson, Pierre J. Laramee, Lewellyn J. Storrs, Charles A. Wheeler and Henry R. Woodward. These directors then held a meeting and elected the following officers: President, Fred D. Jordan; vice presidents, William H. Hall and E. Frank Bug-

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have ringing, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear catarrhal deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmitin (double strength) and add to it 1/2 ounce of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Choked nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dripping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has catarrhal trouble of the ears is hard of hearing or has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

JEWETT CITY

The death of Mrs. L. A. Pantan at Windham is the source of sorrow to many friends in Jewett City. For years her home was home with her sisters and all were held in the highest esteem. They were most devoted members of the Congregational church, never losing their interest in its welfare, nor in that of their friends. Mrs. Pantan has made her home with her niece, Mrs. W. P. Maine, in Windham Center for several years. Some time ago she underwent an operation on her eye and on account of her advanced years did not recover from its effects.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson and son Walter of Windham were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Robinson. The family were one time residents of Jewett City. Mr. Robinson is the superintendent of the Wauregan cotton mills.

The committee of arrangements for the annual banquet and ladies' night at Mt. Vernon lodge, No. 75, F. and A. M., has decided upon May 1st as the date. The change was made from April 24th because the interests of all concerned would be better accommodated.

Mrs. E. B. Cheney and Mrs. Scott Roode entertained the Gardiner class of the M. E. church at the home of Mrs. Cheney Monday evening. The first part of the evening was devoted to business. The program for the evening consisted of a piano solo by Miss Annie Robertson, readings by Mrs. J. E. Aldrich, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Geer, Miss Bella Robertson, selections were also given on the player piano. Refreshments were served by Mrs.

... and with the everyday man on the job

A fact:

At the Capitol Building in Washington, at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York and at scores of other such places—where you would naturally expect only high-priced cigarettes to sell—Fatimas lead in sales. But important as these sales are, they're but a "drop in the bucket" compared with the MILLIONS of Fatimas smoked every day by the big, plain, "you-and-me" public.

NOTE—It is this fact, more than any other, that shows how well Fatima's quality and moderate price "size up" with the common-sense man who doesn't want a fancy box or gold tips, but wants full, honest value.

Cheney and Mrs. Roode. Everyman present spent a delightful evening. The class will meet with Mrs. Harris on May.

W. J. Brickley received a telegram Tuesday that his son Harold had arrived in Boston. He now goes to Camp Devens for his discharge.

sembly, followed. Dr. Savage spoke on the financial drive which the Baptist churches are having in order to pension their retired ministers. Rev. J. R. Russell told of his experiences in the Philippines. At 1 o'clock luncheon was served by women of the church. Myron D.
